Family

Hillside's staff includes two veterinarians, four licensed veterinary technicians, two assistants, four receptionists and a practice manager. The mission statement of "Friendly, full-service veterinary care for your dog or cat" means that we strive to stay progressive and provide comprehensive medical and surgical services, while remaining affordable and treating every client like family.

We understand that your pets are part of your family. Our doctors and staff are all pet owners, too. So, we'll treat your dog or cat like one of our own, which makes you part of our family. Just how it should be.

Since 1996

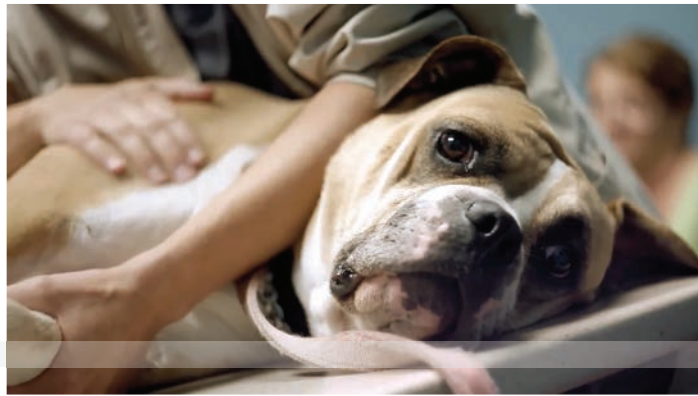

One pet at a time

A 1989 graduate of The Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine, Dr. Tim Fouts completed an internship year in West Los Angeles. His interest in orthopedic surgery was shaped during his six years at Santa Anita Small Animal Hospital, a general practice and surgical referral center in Monrovia, Ca. Since opening Hillside in November, 1996, that interest has helped generate a small referral base of canine cranial cruciate ligament repair, luxating patella stabilization, and a variety of fracture repairs and other orthopedic procedures.

Dr. Emily Hopping graduated OSU in 2003 and joined Hillside in 2007, after 3 years at a busy, multi-doctor small animal clinic in Anacortes, Washington. In addition to being a wonderful general practitioner, she has a passion for veterinary dentistry, helping our patients keep happy and healthy mouths!

Affordable services are one of the many reasons our clients keep coming back to Hillside. Others tell us it's the compassionate care their pets receive. In addition, we're conveniently located near SR 32, just minutes from Eastgate, and just across the way from the many Batavia businesses at Bauer Road. Here when you need us for your pet's routine wellness care, we can also provide hospitalization services when your pet is sick or injured. In addition, our doctors perform surgery every weekday, including routine spaying and neutering, as well as more advanced procedures when necessary. Open six days a week for your convenience, we're sure to find an appointment time to fit into your busy schedule.
